NEW YORK, NY – May 20, 2015 -- The National Association for Multi-ethnicity in Communications (NAMIC) today announced the winners of the 2015 NAMIC Vision Awards. Presented in partnership with NAMIC - Southern California, the awards honor original, multiethnic and multicultural television programming that depicts the lives, spirit and contributions of people of color and best reflects the diversity of the viewing audience. Winners will be showcased online via the 2015 NAMIC Vision Awards Winners Gallery. The awards gallery featuring :60 second clips of the winning programs in each of the 16 categories can be viewed by visiting <http://namicvisionawards.com>.

A total of 27 networks and producers/distributors competed for awards in 16 programming categories: Animation; Children's; Comedy; Documentary; Drama; Foreign Language; Lifestyle; News/Informational; Original Movie or Special; Reality; Reality – Social Issues; Sports; Variety/Talk Show; Best Performance – Comedy; Best Performance – Drama; and Digital Media (Short Form). ESPN, Lifetime, OWN: The Oprah Winfrey Network and Showtime Networks Inc. each garnered wins in two categories to lead all networks.

Showtime Network's original series, "Masters of Sex" was this year's Drama category winner. Best Performance – Drama was awarded to actor Michael Kenneth Williams for his role in HBO's "Boardwalk Empire." Lifetime's "Devious Maids" was the winner in the Comedy category with actors Raúl Castillo and Don Cheadle tying for the win in Best Performance – Comedy. Castillo was recognized for HBO's "Raúl Castillo: Looking" and Cheadle for Showtime Network's "House of Lies." Notably, the Original Movie or Special category also resulted in a tie with wins garnered by CNN's "Documented" and Lifetime's "The Trip to Bountiful."

“Congratulations are extended to all of the 2015 NAMIC Vision Award winners,” said Raquel Williams, president, NAMIC – Southern California and director, Distribution, Crown Media Family Networks. “Since the awards’ inception in 1994, NAMIC – Southern California in collaboration with NAMIC National has remained committed to this initiative with the shared goal of fostering programming diversity. As the creation of multiethnic and culturally relevant content expands, we look forward to continuing the legacy of recognizing those within our industry for their achievements in advancing diversity across all digital platforms.”

The NAMIC Vision Awards competition extends eligibility to national broadcast and cable networks; local affiliates; local origination programs from cable operators; and VOD content produced for digital platforms. Entries were judged by a distinguished panel of entertainment industry executives. Judging is focused on overall imagery (creative merit, originality, and presentation quality), sensitivity (the consideration given to cultural nuances), writing (the depiction of issues relevant to people of color) and the quality of acting in the performance categories.
