

Darryl Jackson
Manager, Mentoring Relations and Chapter Operations
NAMIC, Inc.

As the Manager for Mentoring Relations and Chapter Operations, Darryl oversees the day-to-day operations of NAMIC chapters and stewardship of the L. Patrick Mellon Mentorship Program. In this role, Darryl provides programmatic support and guidance in both these key areas, and works with the Senior Vice President of Education and Diversity Solutions to ensure that program participants and volunteers have access to the resources necessary for success in their endeavors, and are able to maximize the benefits of participation and affiliation.

Darryl began his career in government and finance as a loan officer for the U.S. Department of Agriculture and later moved into mortgage loans as a mortgage broker for SunTrust Bank, Mortgage Virginia and Virginia Mortgage Services. After seven years in finance, Darryl shifted to a career in non-profit and association management, serving as Director of Membership Services and Marketing for Alpha Phi Alpha Fraternity and as a Chapter Development Specialist for the Project Management Institute.

He is an active member of the American Society for Association Executives (ASAE) and has served on their Committee for Diversity and Inclusion. Darryl received his Bachelors of Science in Agricultural Business and Economics from Virginia State University, where he was a U.S. Department of Agriculture National Scholar, and his Masters of Business Administration from University of Maryland University College in Management. Darryl is a graduate of the U.S. Chapter of Commerce's Institute for Organization Management (IOM) and holds ASAE's Certified Association Executive (CAE) credential.
