

NAMIC Chapter Elections

Are you ready to run or nominate someone to run for a NAMIC chapter position? Here is what you need to prepare or obtain from the person you plan to nominate.

- 1. Resume Have an updated resume ready to upload to the online form.
- 2. Headshot Have a professional headshot ready to upload to the online form.
- 3. LinkedIn URL
- 4. Statement of Candidacy

Be prepared to answer the following questions:

- 1. Why are you running for this position?
- 2. How will you enhance the work of the chapter?
- 3. List previous experience working with the chapter and any successes.
- 4. What leadership skills would you bring to the role and the chapter?
- 5. List previous activities with the chapter including the name of the activity and the date(s)
- 6. List other organizations you're affiliated with and the dates of your involvement.
- 7. Estimate the number of hours per month you presently spend on all volunteer activities.
- 8. What do you consider to be the most important issues facing your chapter?
- 9. Service on a chapter requires a considerable time commitment. In addition to attending monthly meetings, officers are required to participate in NAMIC quarterly meetings, and with minimal work in between meetings. Will this present any problems for you? If so, please describe them.
